Section 1: Effect of payment of personal Accelerated Death Benefit/Living Benefit on your remaining personal life insurance and supplemental life insurance benefits

- $ Your (combined amount of personal life insurance and supplemental life insurance) Benefit prior to payment of your Accelerated Death Benefit/Living Benefit
- $ Minus your Accelerated Death Benefit/Living Benefit
- $ Your (combined amount of personal life insurance and supplemental life insurance) Benefit remaining after payment of your Accelerated Death Benefit/Living Benefit. This is the remaining death benefits, if any, available to the beneficiary.

This Accelerated Death Benefit/Living Benefit is not a long-term care policy or a nursing home insurance policy. The amount this benefit pays you may not be enough to cover your medical, nursing home, or other bills. You may use your Accelerated Death Benefit/Living Benefit for any purpose.

Section 2: Disclosures and notices

Receipt of accelerated death benefits may affect eligibility for public assistance programs such as medical assistance (Medicaid), Aid to Families with Dependent Children and Supplemental Security Income.

Receipt of accelerated death benefits in periodic payments may be treated differently than receipt in a lump sum. Prior to applying for accelerated death benefits, certificateholders should consult with the appropriate social services agency concerning how receipt will affect the eligibility of the recipient and/or the recipient's spouse or dependent.

Receipt of accelerated death benefits may be taxable. Receipt of accelerated death benefits in periodic payments may be treated differently than receipt in a lump sum. Prior to applying for such benefits, certificateholders should seek assistance from a qualified tax advisor.

For New York residents, the following statements apply:

- No health care facility as defined in Public Health Law section 20 can require any person to accelerate payment of a death benefit as a condition of admission to such health care facility or for providing any care in such facility.
- The insurer is prohibited from paying accelerated death benefits to the certificateholder for a period of five days from the date on which the information specified in subdivision (f) of Regulation 143 is transmitted in writing to the certificateholder.
